MAUI NOTES

(From the Maui News.) WAILUKU, Apr. 27.—Three men of the Geodetic Survey service have been over in the Hana district the past week.

The Kahului Young Men's Club is giving another of its famous dances Saturday evening, May 4.

The Camp I baseball team defeated a team from Puunene and Kahului last Sunday by a score of 5 to 1.

Supervising Principal Raymond of the Lahaina district went over to Lanai this week to take a look at the school there.

Applications for liquor licenses must be in the hands of the secretary of the liquor commission not later than May 10.

O. J. Whitehead left last night for Honolulu. He sails for the Coast on the Sierra to attend the Foresters' convention at Fresno, Cal.

The Mexican came in to Kahului yesterday. She is pushing her cargo to make room for the Honolulu, which is expected tomorrow.

Mrs. Judge Kingsbury, who has been confined to the house for some time, is improving and will soon be about among her friends again.

A. T. Anderson, engineer of the tugboat Leslie Baldwin, is leaving Kahalui for Honolulu May 11 and is selling his furniture at private sale.

One of the Japanese auto drivers went to sleep in his car on the way to Lahaina Thursday. The car started to climb a kiawe tree, and the result was a bent axle.

The Wailuku ladies have taken the bowling fever, and by the form already shown, we should soon have some lady bowlers who will make the men hustle to beat them.

Mr. Kennedy, manager of the Lahai-na store, left with his family last evening for a long trip through America and Europe. Jack Gannon is temporarily in charge of the store.

Hugh Howell has been over to Hana this week looking after his contract work in that district. He is now at Enatai doing some survey work for Antonio Sierra, the Kaupua rancher.

The Filipino camp at Vailuku, which has been quarantined for some time because of smallpox, has been pronounced clean by the sanitary inspector and the quarantine taken off.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, Maui, April 28.—C. D.
Larkin, cashier of the First National Bank of Wailuku, left last Monday evening for Honolulu on his way to his old home in Illinois to be present at the birthday anniversary of his mother. He will be back the first week in June.

Captain O. J. Whitehead also left yesterday for Lahaina en route to Honolulu. He is a delegate of the Maui Order of Foresters to the convention to be held in Fresno this year.

Messrs. J. P. Cooke and H. A. Bal-win were at the Circuit Court, Wailuku, this morning, when their final accounts as executors under the will of the late Hon. H. P. Baldwin were finally approved by Circuit Judge S. B.
Kingsbury. Mr. Cooke also paid the Wailuku tax office a business visit.

Rev. Wm. S. Short of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, Wailuku, addressed the members of the Christian Endeavor Society at the Kaahumanu native church last Thursday evening on "Home Missions," his remarks being interpreted into Hawaiian by Auditor Chas. Wilcox. There was a large audience present and the remarks of the speaker, which were of non-denominational character, were highly praised by the church members, who were gratified to have the opportunity of hearing Mr. Short in their church. Rev. R. B. Dodge will be the next speaker, on or about May 9th. Col. French of the Salvation Army will address the C. E. members of the Kaahumanu Church tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock, and at 7:30 o'clock the Colonel will address a large gathering at the Wailuku Union Church, when Mr. Fred. Butler will sing.

The new concrete Roman Catholic church at Makawao known as St. Joseph will be opened and dedicated tomorrow morning by Bishop Libert and several of the clergy. Father Justin has issued several hundred invitations to those desiring to be present at the dedication exercises.

Sheriff Clement Crowell reports having found the larvae supposed to be those of the fruit fly pest at all of the Waikapu residences, covering an area of about two miles square. None in Wailuku yet. The fruit fly committee of the Maui Chamber of Commerce will do all in their power to reduce the evil from the fruit fly if possible, and will use the $1000 appropriated for that purpose.

The Maui County Committee of the Republican party met in Wailuku yesterday. The matter of campaign manager was submitted to the various precincts for recommendation.

"WOMAN'S WORK IS NEVER DONE."

It is the faithful woman in the home, who does the cooking, sweeping, dusting, washing and ironing, ambitious to keep her home as neat as a pin, and often having two or three children who require care and attention, who calls for our sympathy.
Overwork is the result. Outraged nature asserts itself in time and female troubles appear.

Such women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the exact medicine they need when their strength is overtaxed and female weakness and derangements make life a burden. For nearly forty years it has been the standard remedy for such troubles.

Ed Towse suggests that the entire first week of June be set aside for Honolulu's second "clean-up." The first clean-up held last year, continued for one day. Towse is a member of the improvement committee having the matter in charge.
